

Context: "A Collection of Really Good Lies"

Inspiration/Appropriation/Theft
(Learning from copying and questioning)

Students will explore and mine an existing historical or present day database. This can be from the library as hardcopy, artifacts, digital sources, personal or found materials. Combining the materials and copying and appropriating them, the students will then reintegrate and subtly introduce their own voice and meaning into their collected archives.

Angebot für

Bisheriges Studienmodell > Fine Arts > Bachelor Fine Arts > Grundstudium > Kontext
Bisheriges Studienmodell > Fine Arts > Bachelor Fine Arts > Hauptstudium > Kontext

Nummer und Typ	BKM-BKM-Ko.18F.005 / Moduldurchführung
Modul	Kontext
Veranstalter	Departement Fine Arts
Leitung	Swetlana Heger
Anzahl Teilnehmende	maximal 17
ECTS	3 Credits
Zielgruppen	BA Art & Media students, seminar language: English
Lernziele / Kompetenzen	Goals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Making a finished personal body of work based on impersonal sources in any medium of choice – Collection, gathering, searching and copying – Considering all aspects of final presentation and form – Investigation and pushing boundaries of research based art practices Each student will present their factual, yet ?ctional "archive/collection" in the final presentation.
Inhalte	What constitutes an archive? What counts as research? Can fiction add to, change and augment our understanding of historical truth or fact? How do history and fiction merge and become muddled? How are archives becoming materials for art making? What is the importance or relevance, of authorship, influence, and authenticity in art making? Examples of artistic practices by Sturtevant, Marcel Broodthaers, Pop Art, Sherrie Levine, Sarah Morris, Richard Prince, Louise Lawler, Allan McCollum, Sylvie Fleury, Haim Steinbach, Jennifer Chan, Superflex, Jonas Lund etc. This course includes a visit to Cabaret Voltaire and to the collection archive of Migros Museum for Contemporary Art. Swetlana Heger is a visual artist, Professor in Fine Arts and Head of the Department Art & Media at Zurich University of the Arts. In her artistic work, she has an ongoing interest in the act of contextualization and dislocation. She is exploring the questions about conditions of an art production including discussion about multiple authorships and relevant possibilities of collaborations between the arts and other partners.

Various international solo and group exhibitions i.e.: Musée des Beaux Arts/Nancy, Le Consortium/Dijon, Vienna Secession, Melbourne Biennale, Berlin Biennale, Centre Georges Pompidou/Paris, Arts Space/New York, Centre National de la Photographie/Paris, Moderna Museet/Stockholm, Hamburger Bahnhof/Berlin, manifesta11, Zürich, Antarctic Pavillon, 57. Venice Biennale.

Her art works are represented in private and public collections and had been reviewed and published in international publications as Artforum, Flash Art, Frieze, Art Now, Spike, Monopol, Süddeutsche Zeitung, Der Spiegel, Princeton University Press, Les presses du réel, Edition Flammarion, Walther König etc.

Leistungsnachweis / Testatanforderung	Regular, active participation. 80% mandatory presence
Termine	BW 3 (14.- 17.5.2018), daily 10:00-12:00 and 13:00-17:00
Bewertungsform	bestanden / nicht bestanden
Bemerkung	Course language: English