Inhalte	Since more than 100 years, choreographers look for concert music to fit with their works, rather than for compositions, especially made for dance. This development, starting with Isadora Duncan and Mikhail Fokine, led to the symphonic ballet Leonid Massine's and is still today a prominent format (Neumeier and Spoerli, choreographing Mahler's symphony ...) The course will give an introduction of music history and its important musical genres, starting with the Renaissance and leading to the present. Participants will enhance their knowledge in music history repertoire and its musical meaning, musical score reading and existing concert music choreographies, to find music for their pieces, as well as for dance classes.
